Free English teaching internships included with 300 Hour TEFL Courses at i-to-i i-to-i TEFL are now offering free teaching internships to Vietnam, China and Spain in packages with their 300 Hour Online TEFL Course.

The new travel packages, launched 1st August 2018, include 300 hours of online TEFL training; a Teacher Pack to help recently qualified teachers get started; plus an application to a free internship run by their long-standing in-country partners.

i-to-i's in-country partners run the internship placement from start to finish, with i-to-i handling the training course element of the package. This collaboration ensures the highest quality of internship programme for the customer. The teacher in training will benefit from excellent support from i-to-i throughout the Ofqual-regulated training, followed by pre-departure and in-country support from their trusted, long-standing partners.

The free teaching internships take place in schools in Vietnam, Spain and China and range from 5-10 months' long.

Gordon Mathie, Managing Director of i-to-i TEFL, commented: "We're delighted to be able to work with our long-standing partners to bring the best value we can to our customers. With our knowledgeable tutors and in-house academic support, combined with the experience of our in-country partners, we believe these packages offer an excellent supported programme for the first-time TEFL teacher."
