

i-to-i TEFL launch diploma-level TEFL qualifications

Leeds-based teach and travel company i-to-i TEFL has, this month, added six Level 5 TEFL Courses and Diplomas to its range of qualifications. i-to-i offer training to those wanting to teach English abroad or online. A Level 5 TEFL certificate is the equivalent level of a CELTA (Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults). CELTA qualifications cost trainee teachers £1,530 to take; however, i-to-i will be offering its Level 5 qualifications starting at an affordable £595.

i-to-i TEFL's Level 5 qualifications will be available in both online and combined study format. For those students who want to train in a face-to-face setting, i-to-i is offering their classroom courses in 10 different countries around the world. Ranging from 180 hours of training all the way up to 320 hours of training, the new TEFL Courses and Diplomas offer a large range of study options for those wanting the most affordable, highly-regarded qualifications on the market.

As well as being more affordable than a CELTA, the Level 5 qualifications also train students to teach young learners – something which a CELTA does not cover. This Teaching Young Learners module, combined with the other Level 5 specialist modules (Teaching One-to-One & Online and Teaching Business English) provides comprehensive training in the most relevant TEFL areas.

James Langton, Company Director at i-to-i TEFL explains: "We're proud to be able to offer our trainee teachers such a high standard of TEFL qualification, for an affordable price. i-to-i has always believed in making teaching English abroad an option for everyone, and we feel our Level 5 Courses and Diplomas stand true to that. Our Courses and Diplomas stand above the crowd given we're the only provider offering Level 5 Specialist Courses."
