

i-to-i TEFL finalist in GoAbroad's Innovation Awards

Leeds-based teach and travel company i-to-i TEFL has been selected as a finalist in the GoAbroad Innovation Awards for 'Best New TEFL Program'.

i-to-i TEFL has been selected as a finalist for their Level 5 range of Diplomas and Courses, launched in January 2019.

The Level 5 TEFL Courses and Diplomas were created by i-to-i TEFL experts to provide CELTA-level TEFL training to those who want the highest level of training possible, but without the large fees that come with CELTA (Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) qualifications.

i-to-i TEFL is the only provider of their kind to provide diploma training at Level 5, which enables teachers to get the best possible teaching jobs around the world. Within the Level 5 packages are specialist courses at Level 5 - an industry first - in the most growing fields of TEFL: Teaching Online & Teaching Business English.

Launched in 1997, GoAbroad first set out to fill the information gap between students with a desire to travel abroad and companies offering international programs.

James Langton, Company Director at i-to-i TEFL says: "Since their launch in January 2019, the Level 5 Courses and Diplomas have enabled hundreds of aspiring TEFL teachers to train up to teach in highly-competitive locations such as South Korea, Japan, Western Europe even in some English-speaking locations. The level of the qualification also allows teachers to apply for the highest paid TEFL roles around the world - something that most short TEFL Courses does not enable."
