

YOUR TEFL CAREER TIMELINE

420-HOUR ADVANCED DIPLOMA

STUDY TIME

180 hours

FUNDAMENTALS OF TEFL

Get to grips with all of the basics of TEFL including how to plan and structure lessons. Plus you'll be taught how to teach English to Young Learners.

WEEK 1

60 hours

TEACHING ONLINE & ONE-TO-ONE

65% of teachers want to teach online – that's a competitive market. With this specialist module on your CV, you'll stand out to online employers & students.

WEEK 6

60 hours

TEACHING BUSINESS ENGLISH

English is a universal language and there's high demand for adults to learn it to help them in their business negotiations.

60 hours

TEACHING OTHER SUBJECTS IN ENGLISH

Often, TEFL teachers are required to teach other subjects in English, such as maths and science. With this qualification under your belt – you'll be ready for anything that your TEFL career throws at you.

60 hours

COACHING EXAM PREPARATION (IELTS)

IELTS is an exam created to assess the language ability of non-native speakers of English, who want to study or work where English is used as the main language.

WEEK 12
ONWARDS

WORKING TIME

After you've completed your first 180 hours of TEFL training, you'll get your 180-Hour TEFL certificate. Now's the perfect time to continue your studies but YOU CAN START TEACHING and building up your experience as a TEFL teacher.

Average salaries for new online TEFL teachers range between

$8-$25 per hour

With specialist modules such as Teaching Business English and Coaching IELTS under your belt, you could be earning mega-bucks!

up to $60 per hour!

FULLY ESTABLISHED TEFL CAREER!