TEACH ENGLISH IN JAPAN WITH i-to-i TEFL

If you like the idea of getting paid to teach and travel and want to be able to explore a stunning new country – our Paid Japan TEFL Internship is right up your street! Spend 12 amazing months exploring everything Japan has to offer, from the bright lights of Tokyo to traditional temples in mountaintop towns like Kōyasan, all while getting real teaching experience!

BACK TO BASICS! WHAT IS TEFL?

TEFL means Teaching English as a Foreign Language! If you've been dreaming of earning money while you travel, making unforgettable memories and learning a sparkly new skill, TEFL is pretty much perfect for you!

During your internship you'll earn an amazing salary, which is yours to spend as you wish! We'll take the hassle out of finding somewhere to live by providing you with assistance obtaining long-term accommodation. We'll also sort out your teaching placement, assist you with visa processes, provide ongoing in-country support, and give you an in-country cultural weekend, so you can get to know Japan. Basically, you'll have everything sorted for you, leaving you free to focus on the fun bits!

Course Breakdown

In case you're curious, here's a brief summary of the modules you'll complete during the 120 Hour Online TEFL Course:

PLANNING A LESSON

Module 1

In the first module, you'll learn the art of lesson planning – the essential tool of any good TEFL teacher. Planning a fun and engaging lesson will not only help your students but it'll also give you confidence and a strong foundation to base your class on. You'll cover:

- Teaching methodologies
- What to include in a lesson plan
- How to set out a lesson plan
- Adapting your lesson for different types of classes

And by the end of the module, you'll have the skills to produce a well-structured lesson plan for a variety of ages and class sizes.

LESSON CONTENT

Module 2

So, now you know how to structure a lesson plan, next on the checklist is learning which content to cover in your lessons. You'll go through:

- Vocabulary
- Grammar
- The four key skills: reading, writing, listening, and speaking

Don't worry! It's all content that you already know from speaking English, so you'll just be refreshing your knowledge and learning how to adapt it into lesson plan form.

MAKING IT WORK IN THE CLASSROOM

Module 3

Once you've got the theory down to a tee, you'll find out how to manage your teaching environment to make it easier for your students to learn. You'll find out how to:

- Create a good teaching environment for your students
- Use different approaches to help your students learn
- Deal with problems as they arise

COURSE ASSESSMENT

Module 4

The Course Assessment is designed to check your knowledge of the previous 3 modules. To pass the course, you'll need to complete all three stages to a satisfactory level:

1. The end-of-course test: this is a multiple-choice quiz with 58 questions based on the course material and you'll need to achieve 75% or above to pass.
2. Lesson plan: we'll give you a choice of scenarios and age groups to base your lesson plan on. You'll just need to fill in the lesson plan template and submit it to your tutor for grading.
3. Essay: you'll need to write 1,000-1,500 words to explain the thinking behind your lesson plan. This will also be submitted to your tutor for grading.

WHAT'S MY ROLE?

There are 2 main types of teaching positions in Japan – public schools and private language centres (known as Eikaiwas) – and your role will be slightly different, depending on where you complete your placement. In the Eikaiwas you will get more autonomy and independence. You'll have more flexibility on classroom topics, and you'll be physically opening and setting up classrooms and closing them up for the day – so you're really in charge! You will also probably need to commute to multiple locations, so your contact hours will be shorter. In public school placements, you'll be an assistant teacher, working alongside a lead Japanese classroom teacher. Your role will vary as you will have the opportunity to lead the class sometimes, with guidance from the Japanese teacher, and at other times you will be assisting and providing one-on-one support to students. Your primary function will be to help with conversational and spoken English in this type of placement.

Your role as a TEFL Teacher consists of:

- Teaching students through engaging English lessons
- Creating lesson plans, resources, and marking
- Conversing with the students in English
- 20 -30 hours of teaching per week (with 2 days off)
- Becoming everyone's favourite new teacher!

Let's talk money!

You'll be earning a salary of US$1650 - $2300 (£1300 - £1,800) per month and receive a stipend or reimbursement for work-related transport. What you do with your salary is, obviously, completely up to you but we know we'd be spending ours eating amazing sushi and ramen, riding the famous bullet trains, and seeing incredible Kabuki shows!

WHERE WILL I BE PLACED?

You'll complete your internship in one of the amazing destinations that our internship partners have across Japan, including Nagoya, Hokkaido, Hiroshima, Fukuoka, and Osaka.

Our dedicated and experienced in-country partners will match you with the most suitable school for your skills and preferences.

With over 27 years of experience sending TEFL teachers abroad, you can rest assured that the internship has been given our expert seal of approval!

FREQUENTLY ASKED Questions

Q: HOW MANY HOURS WILL I BE TEACHING EACH WEEK?

You'll be teaching around 20-30 hours a week, with 2 days off.

Q: WHAT TYPE OF SCHOOL WILL I BE TEACHING AT?

There are two main types of schools that we place people in – private language schools (Eikaiwas) and public schools. The placement you get will depend on when you want to start (Eikaiwas hire throughout the year, public schools tend to hire in March and September).

Q: CAN I GET A DISCOUNT IF I'VE ALREADY TAKEN A TEFL COURSE?

Yes! If you're already qualified, give our team a call on +44 (0) 113 205 4610 for more information.

Q: HOW MANY STUDENTS WILL BE IN MY CLASS?

Class sizes vary between public schools and language schools. Public school classes tend to have around 20-30 students per class, whereas language schools are smaller – they usually only have 6-10 students per class.

Q: WILL THERE BE ANY OTHER TEFL TEACHERS AT MY SCHOOL?

It's not common for TEFL teachers to be placed at the same school but don't worry! You'll have plenty of time to get to know the other TEFL teachers on the internship during your online orientation course and in-country cultural weekend, so you'll have a strong support network.

Q: WHAT WILL MY ACCOMMODATION BE LIKE?

Our internship partners will help you to find suitable and affordable accommodation. Most apartments in Japan are single occupancy and fairly basic but comfortable. It will contain all the essentials you need and will be a commutable distance to your school.

Q: WILL I NEED TRAVEL INSURANCE?

Yes! Wherever you're from, you will need to book travel insurance and make sure it covers you for the full duration of the role.
